

A VERY SPECIAL FIELD TRIP: SAY 'WHOA' TO BULLYING & 'GIDDYUP' TO KINDNESS

Bullying Proofing Skills Can Be Taught!

Our prevention-focused approach uses activities with horses in a neutral, non-threatening and fun environment to reinforce students' positive social skills and foster respect, empathy, kindness and inclusion.

WHAT: One-of-a-kind Equine Assisted Learning field trip to educate and empower students with social skills to help combat bullying.

WHEN: Held weekly every Wednesday, 10 a.m. – noon, by appointment.

WHERE: Carousel Farms, home to Equine Reflections, at 81120 Chenel Road in Folsom, Louisiana.

WHO: Field trips can be customized for group sizes of 40 (minimum) – 150 (maximum) students of a variety of ages/grade levels.

STUDENTS CAN: Take the reins of compassionate leadership, with genuine confidence and self-esteem

Unbridle self-trust with improved social and communication skills

---

Gallop to success with healthy boundaries of respect for self and others

---

Ride a trail of empathy, inclusion and kindness throughout life, in and beyond school
